

ICAR- CIFTEQ[®] Lipstick Using Squid Chromatophore as Colorant

Salient features

Cost effective and environmental friendly.
Hazard free and safe even if ingested
Organic

Advantages

Colourant sourced from squid skin
Can be safely used in the cosmetic.
Can be marketed at affordable price.
Contain ingredients of natural origin and safe even ingested.

Process

Dr. Femeena Hassan, Muhamed Ashraf Pachareentavita, Geethalakshmi Vaidhyanathan, Sankar Thazhakot Vasu Nambisan

Technology / Product developed by

Quality Assurance and Management Division, ICAR-CIFT, Kochi 682029, femenahassan@rediffmail.com

Year

2014

Source of funding

DST

More information

Status of commercialization / Patent / Publications

Femeena Hassan, P A Muhamed, V Geethalakshmi and T V Sankar (2015) Quality assessment of chromatophores isolated from squid skin as natural pigment in formulation of lipstick. Journal of Scientific & Industrial Research Vol. 74, March 2015, pp. 171-175

Patent filed as per file No: 226/CHE/2014

Technology transferred to: M/s. Travancore pets